 - 2) Perspective of a reasonable officer
 - b. To effect arrest, prevent escape, overcome resistance
 - c. Significant change in use of force threshold per AB 392
 - 1) Subsections (b) and (c)(1) of PC 835a provide for a clear distinction between objectively reasonable and deadly force standards
 - 2) While objectively reasonable force may be utilized “to prevent escape, or to overcome resistance” to effect a lawful arrest, as soon as the circumstances reach a threshold for deadly force the standard increases to “necessary.”
2. Key Elements of Penal Code (PC) Section 196 – Justifiable Homicide
 - a. Definition revised to rely more heavily on PC 835a – deadly force can only be used when necessary
 - b. “Homicide is justifiable when committed by peace officers and those acting by their command in their aid and assistance, under either of the following circumstances:” [PC 196]
 - 1) “In obedience to any judgment of a competent court order.” [PC 196(a)]
 - 2) “When the homicide results from a peace officer’s use of force that complies with Penal Code Section 835a.” [PC 196(b)]
 - c. What changed?
 - 1) Removed “When necessarily committed in overcoming actual resistance to the execution of some legal process or in the discharge of any other legal duty”
 - 2) Removed “When necessarily committed in retaking felons who have been rescued or have escaped, or when necessarily committed in arresting persons charged with felony and who are fleeing from justice or resisting such arrest.”
3. Key Elements of Penal Code Section 835a
 - a. “The Legislature finds and declares”: [PC 835a(a)]

V – USE OF FORCE

MERCED POLICE DEPARTMENT – 3130

- 1) “The authority to use physical force, conferred on peace officers by this section, is a serious responsibility that shall be exercised judiciously and with respect for human rights and the dignity and the sanctity of every human life.”
- 2) “The Legislature finds and declares that every person has a right to be free from excessive use of force by peace officers acting under the color of law.” [PC 835a(a)(1)]
- b. “As set forth below, it is the intent of the Legislature that peace officers use deadly force only when necessary in defense of human life. In determining whether deadly force is necessary, officers shall evaluate each situation in light of the particular circumstance of each case and shall use other available resources and techniques if reasonably safe and feasible to an objectively reasonable officer.” [PC 835a(a)(2)]
- c. “That the decision by a peace officer to use force shall be evaluated carefully and thoroughly, in a manner that reflects the gravity of that authority and the serious consequences of the use of force by peace officers, in order to ensure that officers use force consistent with law and agency policies.” [PC 835a(a)(3)]
- d. That the decision by a peace officer to use force shall be evaluated from the perspective of a reasonable officer in the same situation, based on the totality of circumstances known to or perceived by the officer at the time, rather than with the benefit of hindsight, and that the totality of circumstances shall account for occasions when officers may be forced to make quick judgments about using force.” [PC 835a(a)(4)]
- e. “That individuals with physical, mental health, developmental, or intellectual disabilities are significantly more likely to experience greater levels of physical force during police interactions, as their disability may affect their ability to understand or comply with commands from peace officers. It is estimated that individuals with disabilities are involved in between one-third and one-half of all fatal encounters with law enforcement.” [PC 835a(a)(5)]
- f. “Any peace officer who has reasonable cause to believe that the person to be arrested has committed a public offense may use objectively reasonable force to effect the arrest, to prevent escape, or to overcome resistance.” [PC 835a(5)(b)]
- g. “Notwithstanding subdivision (b), a peace officer is justified in using deadly force upon another person only when the officer reasonably believes, based on the totality of the circumstances, that such force is necessary (emphasis added) for either of the following reasons:” [PC 835a(c)(1)]
 - 1) “To defend against an imminent threat of death or serious bodily injury to the officer or another person.” [PC 835a(c)(1)(A)]
 - 2) “To apprehend a fleeing person for any felony that threatened or resulted in death or serious bodily injury, if the officer reasonably believes that the person will cause death or serious bodily injury to another unless immediately apprehended.

- a) Where feasible, a peace officer shall, before the use of force, make reasonable efforts to identify themselves as a peace officer and
 - b) Warn that deadly force may be used, unless the officer has objectively reasonable grounds to believe the person is aware of those facts.” [PC 835a(c)(1)(B)]
 - i. “A peace officer shall not use deadly force against a person based on the danger that person poses to themselves, if an objectively reasonable officer would believe the person does not pose an imminent threat of death or serious bodily injury to the peace officer or to another person.” [PC 835a(C)(2)]
 - j. “A peace officer who makes or attempts to make an arrest need not retreat or desist from their efforts by reason of the resistance or threatened resistance of the person being arrested. A peace officer shall not be deemed an aggressor or lose the right to self-defense by the use of objectively reasonable force in compliance with subdivisions (b) and (c) to effect the arrest or to prevent escape or to overcome resistance. For the purposes of this subdivision, ‘retreat’ does not mean tactical repositioning or other de-escalation tactics.” [PC 835a(d)]
 - k. “For purposes of this section, the following definitions apply:” [PC 835a(e)]
 - 1) “‘Deadly force’ means any use of force that creates a substantial risk of causing death or serious bodily injury, including, but not limited to, the discharge of a firearm.” [PC 835a(e)(1)]
 - 2) “A threat of death or serious bodily injury is ‘imminent’ when, based on the totality of the circumstances, a reasonable officer in the same situation would believe that a person has the present ability, opportunity, and apparent intent to immediately cause death or serious bodily injury to the peace officer or another person. An imminent harm is not merely a fear of future harm, no matter how great the fear and no matter how great the likelihood of the harm, but is one that, from appearances, must be instantly confronted and addressed.” [PC 835a(e)(2)]
 - l. “‘Totality of the circumstances’ means all facts known to the peace officer at the time, including the conduct of the officer and the subject leading up to the use of deadly force.” [PC 835a(e)(3)]
 - 1) Officers should be prepared to articulate what actions were taken and why
 - 2) Officers should be prepared to articulate what actions were not taken and why they were not taken
